CARMEN CAZALLAS 4A
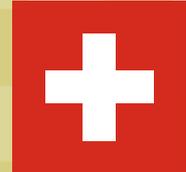

Henry Dunant

Henry Dunant was a humanitarian and the founder of the Red Cross.

He won the Nobel peace Prize :

- Helped wounded soldiers.
- Founded the Red Cross.
- Created humanitarian aid.
- Defended human rights.
- Protected victims of war.
- Promoted peace between nations.
- Changed the laws of war.

I spent many years poor and forgotten, but later the world recognized my work.

1859
Saw the Battle of Solferino.
Helped wounded soldiers.

1863
Founded the Red Cross.

1901
Won the Nobel Peace Prize.

1828
Born in Geneva, Switzerland.

1862
Wrote the book: A Memory of Solferino.

1864
Helped create the First Geneva Convention.
Protected wounded soldiers and doctors.

1910
Died in Heiden, Switzerland.